

The Khadijat-ul-Kubra International Empowerment Expo & SDGs Forum for Women-Owned Businesses in a Child and Mother Support Week

Join us for a transformative event celebrating entrepreneurship, social responsibility, and unity, aimed at making a lasting impact on Afghanistan's entrepreneurial landscape and regional development. This program is designed to empower women entrepreneurs, promote sustainable development, and drive positive social and economic change in Afghanistan and the broader region.

Key Program Highlights:

- Afghanistan Sustainable Development Goals Forum (SDGs)
- International Empowerment Expo
- Women's Leadership and Entrepreneurship Workshops
- Panel Discussions on Social and Economic Change
- Pitch Competitions and Investment Opportunities
- Women in Technology and Innovation
- Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment
- Cultural Showcase and Networking
- Social Impact Initiatives
- Women's Health and Well-being
- Awards and Recognition
- Charity and Social Support

Don't miss out on this unique opportunity to be part of an event that fosters collaboration, supports underprivileged women and children, offers high-level engagement, knowledge exchange, prestigious recognition, and a rich cultural showcase.

Organizer Introduction:

Organized by: Afghanistan Women's Chamber of Commerce and Industry (AWCCI) & Afghanistan Social Workers Professional Organization (ASO)

About AWCCI: The Afghanistan Women's Chamber of Commerce and Industry (AWCCI) is dedicated to empowering women entrepreneurs, fostering economic growth, and promoting gender equality in Afghanistan. With a commitment to supporting women-owned businesses, AWCCI plays a pivotal role in driving positive change in the country's business landscape.

About ASO: The Afghanistan Social Workers Professional Organization (ASO) is a leading advocate for social change and sustainable development in Afghanistan. Committed to social responsibility and community well-being, ASO is instrumental in promoting social work practices that make a meaningful impact on society.

Together, AWCCI and ASO bring you an event that promises to leave a lasting legacy of social transformation and inclusivity.

+93 781 35 38 80
+93 731 25 98 25
Info@asoaf.org

+93 765 77 76 66
Info@asoaf.org